from the Dy Commissioner, Kolar District, reporting the Circumstances under which the Toddy farm of the Bowringpet was resold, which are as follows: ——

(1.) Puttasamiah failed to furnish the required personal security and to pay the monthly Kists from April to June 1892, though repeatedly warned of the same.

(2) He is reported to be a pauper

(3) His repeated promises to pay up the Kists were not fulfilled. The sum of Rs 973-15-4 or 1/12th of the Contract amount, which he deposited is all the security held by Govt on his account.

(4.) There being no chance of recovering the Govt dues from Puttasamiah, the farm for the remaining part of the year (viz 11th

July 1892 to 31st March 1893)
was resold by public auction by the Dy Commr on the 4th July 1892 at Bowring-pet, the highest bidder
being A. B. Chikkauna Chetty who has offered Rupees
4,600 for the same or Rs 48 87-8-- inclusive of local cess. The result of the resale is a loss to Govt of the sum of Rs 3563-15-1,
and to make good this loss steps are being taken to proceed against the defaulter & his sureties.
(5) To avoid further loss to Govt and inconvenience to the drinking public, the highest bidder, Chikkauna Chetty, has been permitted to enter upon his farm in anticipation of sanction.
(6) The necessary Mutchalika has been taken from the Contractor and his sureties Subbappa and Abboy Naidu who are men of substance.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that B. Puttusamiah, Toddy farmer of the Bowringpett taluk has failed to furnish the required personal security and to pay the monthly Kists from April to June last, though repeatedly warned of the same without effect.

2. He is reported to be a pauper and apparently no enquiry appears to have been made as to his means or his competency to become a Government Renter before the farm was knocked down to him.

3. He is said to be a Gumastah under a wealthy merchant at Bangalore and the latter has since turned him out of his service.

4. He made several promises of payment which he never fulfilled. He has deposited Rs 973-15-4 or 1/12 of the Contract amount and this is all the security held by Government on his account.

5. There being no chance of recovering the Govt. dues dues from the defaulting Contractor, I have had to resell the farm for the remaining part of the year (viz 11th July 1892 to 31st March 1893) by public auction on the 11th instant at Bowringpett and the highest bidder at the auction was A. B. Chikkanna Chetty who has offered Rs 4,600 for the same or Rs 4887-8-0 inclusive of local cess.

6. The proportionate loss sustained by Government for the above said period by the resale amounts to Rs 3563-15-1 as shown in the margin and the Amildar has been directed to proceed against the available property of the defaulter and the individuals who stood security to pay up the arrears. The result will be reported in due course.

7. In a Taluk like Bowringpett, which is devoid of date groves, it is in my opinion inadvisable to sell the farms by shops or small groups of shops, the circumstances requiring the intervention of a capitalist, who can afford to import Toddy from Her Majesty's Territories a shop-wise sale having for the above reason proved unsuccessful, the farm was sold by the Taluk.

8. I have with a view to avoid further loss to Government and inconvenience to the drinking drinking publicc permitted Chikkkanna Chetty to enter upon his farm in anticipation of sanction and I request confirmation of the sale.

Sir,

With reference to your No 667-8 R 106-92 dated 16th Instant, forwarding copy of a telegram from B. Puttusamiah, Toddy Contractor, Bowringpet Taluk, I have the honour to state that the Contractor, though repeatedly warned failed to pay the kists and to furnish the required personal Security.

2. The last act of this was the Execution by the Amildar of a Muchelika, dated the 1st Instant by which he agreed that he would pay the arrears and furnish the Security within 4 days; in default the farm was to be disposed of otherwise without any further notice to him.

3. One Venkatasubbiah, who stood Security for the fulfilment of the above Engage-

Engagement has also failed in his promises

4. The farm had therefore to be re-sold at the defaulter's risk on the 11th Instant and knocked to one Christiannee Chetty for Rs 4600 (exclusive of local cess), which was the highest bid offered at the auction

5. The sale was duly notified in Bangalore and in the Talooks adjacent to Bowringpet and the Auction purchaser has been put in charge of the farm in anticipation of sanction

6. I have addressed the Excise Commissioner with a view to the confirmation of the sale.

7. The Amildar has been directed to proceed against the available property of the defaulting Contractor and of the individuals who stood security for him for the recovery of the loss sustained by Government by the re-sale.

8. Copies of this Office letters as per margin to the Excise Commissioner on the subject are herewith submitted for information.

Sir,

In continuation of this Office letter No 175/114, dated the 17th Instant, reporting the result of the re-sale of the Doddy Farm of the Boroongpet Taluk held in consequence of failure of the original Contractor to furnish the required personal security and to pay the monthly Kists, I have the honour to state that higher tenders as per margin have been received subsequent to the closure of the Sale and none of the tenderers specify the period for which they make their respective offers.

2. The Sale was duly notified in Bangalore and in the Talukas adjacent to Boroongpet. The Applicants could well have availed themselves

Name of Tenderer	Date of Tender	Amount of Tender
1 Doddalakkamanahalli Mutha of Bangalore.	16.7.92.	Rs 6000
2 Lakkia Gowda, Choltry, Bangalore	18.7.92.	Rs 5500 ×	This was accepted through the Excise Comm, to whom it was referred.
3. Bidr Venkatachariah, Sultanpet of Bangalore	18.7.92.	Rs 5500	accepted.

themselves of the opportunity and appeared at the public auction when the terms of the sale would have been fully explained to them.

3. The auction purchaser Chikkanna Chetty has, as already reported, been put in charge of the farm in anticipation of sanction with a view to avoid delay and further loss to Government. It is undesirable to disturb the arrangement, as it will tend to shake the confidence of the public in Government sales.

4. I beg under these circumstances to recommend that the sale may be confirmed and the bids now received too late rejected.
